Norm Developer

Hello I am Norm from India and I am a student and one of the pillar of Alpha. I love to enjoy my life and I am addicted to "HIP-HOP" music , coffee. Though I am a programer of Python language but I also know some part of Web development in HTML and CSS. I have made some project like "my interpreter" and I am current working on "C.A.R.P" Computerized Artificial Assistant Program v3.0 named "Fury" It is still in development stage and I have to learn a lot to make on a level I want. It is a project which is inspired from the character Iron-Man were he use a assistant named "jarvis" to help him in doing task.
